

Holly M. Eisenhauer, CPA

Principal

eisenhauerh@sva.com 608.826.2096

Holly is a Principal with SVA Certified Public Accountants and specializes in individual taxation with a focus on proactive tax planning and developing strategies to minimize current and future tax liabilities. She also enjoys working with closely held businesses and their owners providing the support needed to help them grow their businesses. Her experience gives her the ability to consult with clients in a variety of areas such as alternative minimum tax, tax credits and savings opportunities, entity selection, and identity theft.

She concentrates her practice in tax planning, consulting, and tax compliance for individual and business clients. Holly concentrates on developing and training SVA staff in the individual area.

Holly is a member of the Wisconsin Institute of Certified Public Accountants (WICPA) and the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA).

Areas of Expertise

- Tax Planning for Individuals
- Tax Credits
- Tax Planning and Compliance
- Entity Selection

Industries

- Manufacturing
- Family Owned Businesses

Credentials

- Certified Public Accountant (CPA)

Education

University of Colorado - Boulder

- Master of Science - Business Administration with an emphasis in Taxation
- Bachelor of Science - Business Administration