Todd is a Principal with SVA Certified Public Accountants and works with closely-held businesses in the manufacturing, distribution, and construction industries. His specialties include offering assurance services (audits, reviews, compilations, forecasts, and projections), mergers and acquisition services, fraud and litigation support services, and outsourced CFO services.

As a specialist within the manufacturing and distribution industries, Todd's experience includes sales and operations analysis, budgeting, variable and fixed cost analysis, product costing, and CFO outsource services.

In addition, Todd works with companies during the mergers and acquisition process which includes preparation of detailed financial projections, assistance in purchase and sales transactions, performance of due diligence procedures, and assistance in getting business books and records ready for the sales process.

His experience with fraud and litigation support includes analyzing financial aspects of legal disputes and conducting fraud and other forensic investigation services. These services help organizations and individuals identify and protect assets, manage risks, address vulnerabilities, and pursue cases of fraud.

Todd is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA), Wisconsin Institute of Certified Public Accountants (WICPA), and the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners (ACFE)..
