

Executive compensation is a difficult area for many nonprofit organizations to deal with. Each nonprofit organization is so different from the next that it's very difficult to determine what is fair and equitable compensation.

Hi, I'm Kirsten Houghton, principal at SVA Certified Public Accountants and the head of our nonprofit services group. I really enjoy sharing my knowledge and expertise with nonprofit organizations and their board members to help them focus on their mission while staying in compliance. Some of the topics I like to talk about include, teaching people to read and actually understand nonprofit financial statements and the form 990. I like to demonstrate how they can use a form 990 for a marketing type of tool. I like to share ideas on internal control and suggest best practices boards can use to effectively govern. If you would like me to speak to your group, contact Speaker Source.
