

Do you like to gamble? Let's take that one step further, would you gamble the entire future of your business knowing the odds are against you? I'm Nikki Gralapp and I'm a CPA in our business advisory services group. If you're a business owner and you do not have a succession plan, then the entire future of your business is a gamble and that's likely the largest asset in your estate. If you don't feel like luck is enough, I would love to talk to you about the ins and the outs of creating and implementing a successful succession plan. If you would like me to come speak to your group on succession planning or any other topic, please contact SVA Speaker Source today.
